Applicant was previously permitted by the South Carolina Public Service Commission to participate in a number of matters in the late 1980s and throughout the 1990s based on oral motion at the hearing, which was the standard practice at the time. Applicant also participated in two appeals of two Commission cases that were resolved by the Supreme Court of South Carolina, in which pro hac vice status may have been granted.<sup>1</sup> However, Applicant does not recall the details of these cases, or any other cases, which were completed many years ago. Applicant has never been denied the right to participate in a South Carolina case.

11. Applicant agrees to comply with the applicable statutes, laws and rules of the State of South Carolina and will familiarize him/herself with and comply with the South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct. Applicant consents to the jurisdiction of the South Carolina courts and Commission on Lawyer Conduct.
